Patient Stories: Do They Belong In Appeals?

Patient stories are the pulse in healthcare communication.

"Open all meetings with a patient story—good or bad—and make sure the importance of patient centricity is the message communicated at all leadership meetings," states the Press Ganey whitepaper "A Strategic Blueprint for Transformation Change," released this month and available at PressGaney.com.

Do appeal letters fall within to scope of communications which could be improved with stories?

It is definitely possible.
